

What can you expect in each style of accommodation?

Residential colleges	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • pastoral care, library facilities, recreational options, tutors may be arranged • meals provided • power, gas & water consumption included • located in North Adelaide, walking distance to the City • fully furnished • own bedroom, usually shared dining, bathroom & recreation facilities • most expensive option upfront, but includes most expenses
Student hostels	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • independent living, though supervision is provided in some hostels • usually self-catering, but some provide meals • power & gas consumption usually included • located mostly in suburbs rather than CBD of Adelaide • fully furnished • own bedroom, shared large kitchens, dining, bathrooms & recreation facilities
Student apartments	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • independent living • self-catering • usually pay for own utilities (power, gas & water) • negotiate sharing of household chores & expenses with fellow tenants • fully furnished • own bedroom, shared apartment kitchen, living area & bathroom • walking distance to campuses
'Private rental'	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • most independent living option • look for vacancies in UniSA Rental Database, real estate agencies & newspaper • may be unfurnished or fully furnished • whole property (house, unit, etc.) or share-house with own room • self-catering • usually pay for own power, gas & water consumption • negotiate sharing of household chores & expenses with fellow tenants • usually arranged in person, when in Adelaide