

Orientation for undergraduate students in the Division of Business

Orientation activities introduce you to campus life, to people, to new ways of teaching and learning and to the multitude of resources and support available at the University of South Australia. Your Orientation activities are outlined below.

On-campus Enrolment Assistance Session

Monday 13 July 2009

Time	Activity	Location - City West campus
1.00pm – 3.00pm	Division of Business students On-campus Enrolment Assistance Session If you need assistance to enrol, help in choosing your courses or you're intending to apply for credit, come and see us.	The Atrium, Yungondi Building, Level 1 (Ground Floor)

Division of Business Orientation Activities

Wednesday 22 July 2009

Time	Activity	Location - City West campus
9.30am - 10.15am	School of Marketing welcome to new students The School will provide a welcome, overview and information on academic expectations for new students.	Sir Hans Heysen Building, Level 3, Room 8 (HH3-08)
9.30am - 10.15am	School of Commerce welcome to new students The School will provide a welcome, overview and information on academic expectations for new students.	Hawke Building, Allan Scott Auditorium, Level 2, Room 16 (H2-16)
9.30am - 10.15am	School of Management welcome to new students The School will provide a welcome, overview and information on academic expectations for new students.	Sir Hans Heysen Building, Level 3, Room 9 (HH3-09)

Time	Activity	Location - City West campus
10.30am - 12.00pm	Program Information Sessions Meet your program director and fellow students and find out about important information relating to your program and career direction. This session includes a morning tea break.
	Marketing
	Bachelor of Management (Marketing) (DBMK) Bachelor of Management (Marketing), Bachelor of Arts (International Studies) (DBMT) Bachelor of Marketing and Communication (DBMN)	Sir Hans Heysen Building, Level 3, Room 8 (HH3-08)
	Commerce
	Bachelor of Commerce (DBCC) Bachelor of Applied Finance (DBBF) & Bachelor of Commerce, Bachelor of Applied Finance (DBCBC) Bachelor of Business (Commercial Law) (DBCL) & Bachelor of Commerce, Bachelor of Business (Commercial Law) (DBCR)	Hawke Building, Allan Scott Auditorium, Level 2, Room 16 (H2-16)
	Bachelor of Business (International Business) (DBIB) & Bachelor of Business (International Business, Bachelor of Arts (International Studies) (DBIL)	Sir George Kingston Building, Level 2, Room 16 (GK2-16)
	Bachelor of Business (Property) (DBPY)	Sir George Kingston Building, Level 2, Room 15 (GK2-15)
	Bachelor of Business Administration (Specialisation) (DBBA)	Sir George Kingston Building, Level 2, Room 10 (GK2-10)
	Management
	Bachelor of Tourism and Event Management (DBTM) Bachelor of Management (Human Resource Management) (DBHM)	Sir Hans Heysen Building, Level 3, Room 9 (HH3-09)
	Bachelor of Management (DBMA) & Bachelor of Management, Bachelor of Arts (International Studies) (DBME)	Barbara Hanrahan Building, Level 4, Room 22 (BH4-22)
	Bachelor of Sport and Recreation Management (LBRL)	Barbara Hanrahan Building, Level 4, Room 23 (BH4-23)
12.00pm - 12.45pm	Campus Tour Current UniSA students will take you on a tour of the City West campus, and assist you with completing the Business Passport to Success competition.	Business Mates meet students outside program information session locations
12.45pm - 1.45pm	Lunch activities Come along to a free lunch and be provided with 'express information' about important services and student clubs at UniSA.	Student Lounge, Barbara Hanrahan Building, Level 3, Room 23 (BH3-23)

Time	Activity	Location - City West campus
1.45pm - 3.00pm	Preparing for Study An information session jointly offered by the Library and Learning and Teaching Unit to provide information on studying at University, services available and how students can prepare for their first week of lectures. This session will include a panel of current students talking about their experiences of being a first year student and you will be able to ask them questions.	Hawke Building, Allan Scott Auditorium, Level 2, Room 16 (H2-16)
3.00pm - 4.00pm (optional)	Online@UniSA Hands-on training session to familiarise students with the ways in which they will use computers in their study at UniSA. Including: the student portal, course homepages, submitting assignments online, participating in online discussions, accessing podcasts.	Sir George Kingston Building, Level 3, Rooms 21 and 24 (GK3-21 and GK3-24)
3.00pm - 6.00pm (optional)	Enrolment and Credit If you have not already enrolled or need to apply for credit and would like some assistance please come along to Campus Central and we will have E-buddies waiting to help you. Student ID Cards Campus Central staff will be available to issue your Student Identification card if you have not already collected your card. Please note it takes 30 minutes from the time you enrol online until your card can be issued.	The Atrium, Yungondi Building, Level 1 (Ground Floor)

Thursday 23 July 2009

Time	Activity	Location - City West
10.00am - 12.00pm	Academic writing session An information session offered by the Learning and Teaching Unit to provide information focusing on: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Expectations of academic writing and how they might be different from your previous study experience - Step by step approach to preparing an assignment in a core course - Academic integrity, referencing and avoiding plagiarism 	School of Marketing Sir George Kingston Building, Level 2, Room 12 (GK2-12) School of Commerce Sir George Kingston Building, Level 2, Room 10 (GK2-10) School of Management Sir George Kingston Building, Level 2, Room 15 (GK2-15)
12.00pm - 1.00pm	Lunch activities Come along to a free lunch to meet other students studying in the Division of Business.	Sir George Kingston Building, Level 4, Room 30 (GK4-30)
1.00pm – 2.30pm	Being a Successful Student Where to get help in UniSA when you need it, and strategies for balancing the challenges of study, work and life.	Sir George Kingston Building, Level 4, Room 30 (GK4-30)
2.45pm - 4.15pm	Money Matters Practical tips about banks, shopping, avoiding financial traps, scholarships, budgeting and other ways to save money. Includes useful guidelines and online resources to help you find work while you are studying; to know what employers expect of you, and ensure that you are being treated appropriately and paid fairly.	Sir George Kingston Building, Level 4, Room 30 (GK4-30)

Overview of Orientation – Division of Business

Orientation activities introduce you to campus life, to people, to new ways of teaching and learning and to the multitude of resources and support available at the University of South Australia. Your Orientation activities are outlined below.

After hours repeat - this overview is for new students in the Division of Business who are unable to attend the daytime orientation sessions. Part-time and external students are particularly encouraged to attend.

Thursday 23 July 2009

Time	Activity	Location - City West campus
5.30pm - 6.00pm	Welcome - drinks and nibbles Come along to free drinks and nibbles and meet other students and staff in the Division of Business.	Hawke Building foyer
6.00pm - 6.30pm	Welcome to new students Division of Business welcome.	Hawke Building, Allan Scott Auditorium, Level 2, Room 16 (H2-16)
6.30pm - 7.45pm	Preparing for Study An information session jointly offered by the Library and Learning and Teaching Unit to provide information on studying at University, services available and how students can prepare for their first week of lectures. This session will include a panel of current students talking about their experiences of being a first year student and you will be able to ask them questions.	Hawke Building, Allan Scott Auditorium, Level 2, Room 16 (H2-16)