

2012 HDR Completions

The School of Psychology, Social Work and Social Policy has had a broad range of Research Degree completions including:

Dr Garry Hall

Working wounded or engaged? : Australian work conditions and consequences through the lens of the job demands-resources model.

Principal Supervisor: Professor Tony Winefield

Dr Renae Hayward

Emotional boundaries and well-being within the nursing context.

Co supervisors: Dr Michelle Tuckey and Dr Carolyn Boyd

Dr Jasmine Huynh

The psychology of volunteering: an in-depth examination of the job demands-resources model in the volunteer workforce.

Principal Supervisor: Professor Tony Winefield

Dr Sarven McLinton

Interpersonal anger: the theory and measurement of a new psychological construct.

Principal Supervisor: Professor Maureen Dollard

Dr Elissa Pearson

*Conservation psychology and its application to the survival of orangutans (Pongo abelii and Pongo pygmaeus).*

Principal Supervisor: Dr Carla Litchfield

Dr Margaret Rowntree

Trimillennium feminine sexualities: representations, lives and daydreams.

Co Supervisors: Dr Lia Bryant and Dr Nicole Moulding

Dr Mary Salveron

A journey to a new parent identity: recovering from identity trauma and negotiating practice in child protection settings.

Co Supervisors: Professor Tony Winefield and Dr Fiona Arney

Dr Janelle White

Indigenous peoples' livelihoods and emerging bush produce industries - recent experiences from Australia's arid zone.

Principal Supervisor: Professor Bernard Guerin

Dr Xuan Zhou

Sleep, wake and phase dependent changes in waking neurobehavioural function.

Co Supervisors: Dr Sally Ferguson and Dr Gregory Roach