

2013 HDR Completions

The School of Psychology, Social Work and Social Policy has had a broad range of Research Degree completions including:

Dr Mikaila Crotty

Exploring responsibility and accountability in clinical handover.

Supervisors: Dr Michelle Tuckey and Professor Kurt Lushington

Dr Douglas Drury

Controlled flight into emotional terrain.

Supervisors: Professor Kurt Lushington and Associate Professor Jill Dorrian

Dr Valerie O'Keeffe

Nurses' sensemaking: the social context of occupational health and safety decision making.

Supervisors: Dr Michelle Tuckey and Professor Kurt Lushington

Dr Tessa Opie

Nursing in the bush: occupational stress in very remote Australia.

Supervisors: Professor Maureen Dollard and Associate Professor John Wakerman

Dr Elena Rudnik

Associations between age, executive function, health literacy, values and health behaviour of men during emerging and young adulthood.

Supervisors: Associate Professor Janet Bryan and Dr Matt Haren

Dr Fatahillah Abdul Syukur

Court-annexed mediation for settling family disputes in Indonesia.

Supervisors: Associate Professor Dale Bagshaw and Dr Nilan Yu

Dr Puthsodary Tat

Land disputes and development in post-conflict Cambodia: justice for all.

Supervisors: Dr Alan Campbell and Associate Professor Dale Bagshaw

Dr Van Tran

Social inclusion of children with disabilities in Vietnam.

Supervisors: Associate Professor Adrian Vicary, Dr Alan Campbell and Dr Nilan Yu

Dr Paul Van Dijk

Fairness matters! Organisational justice and work-life spillover amongst South Australian nurses, midwives and care workers.

Supervisors: Dr Natalie Skinner and Professor Barbara Pocock