

Learning to live in culturally diverse societies: Culturally Responsive Pedagogies

Thursday 28th September 2017

Presenters: Associate Professor Robert Hattam – University of South Australia
 Professor Carl Anders Säfström- Södertörn University
 Professor Graham Hingangaroa Smith- University of New England
 Professor Aislinn O'Donnell- Maynooth University Ireland
 Dr Jacqueline D'Warte -Western Sydney University
 Professor Annette Woods- Queensland University of Technology
 Dr Stephen Kelly – University of New England
 Professor Daryle Rigney- Flinders University
 Associate Professor Steve Hemming- Flinders University
 Dr Simone Bignall- Flinders University
 Professor Lester-Irabinna Rigney - University of South Australia
 Professor Mohamad Abdalla- Centre for Islamic Thought and Education
 Dylan Chown- Centre for Islamic Thought and Education
 Dr Alison Wrench- University of South Australia
 Dr Kathryn Paige- University of South Australia
 Dr Hannah Soong – University of South Australia

 See attached for Presenters Bio's*

Conference Contact:

Name: Associate Professor Robert Hattam
 Position: School of Education
 Office: (+618) 8302 4226
 Email: Robert.Hattam@unisa.edu.au

September 28th 2017- Venue: University of South Australia. Magill Campus, C Building, C1-79

8:45am	Welcome - Acknowledgment of Country	Professor Irabinna Rigney
9:00 – 11:00am	SYMPOSIA 1
25 mins	Learning to live in culturally diverse societies: provocations and frontiers	Speakers: Associate Professor Robert Hattam
25 mins	Transforming Pedagogies: The Maori Education Revolution	Speaker: Professor Graham Smith
25 mins	Transnational teachers in Australian schools: Theoretical discussion for teaching democratic practice	Speaker: Dr Hannah Soong
25 mins	The Enquiring Classroom: Reflecting on Democracy, Education and Pedagogy in the Context of the Securitisation of Education	Speaker: Professor Aislinn O'Donnell

20 mins	DISCUSSION
11:00-11:30Am	Morning Tea –	C1-79 Foyer, Magill Campus
11:30 – 1:30pm	SYMPOSIA 2
25 mins	The scandal of a culturally responsive pedagogy, or teaching “anything to anyone”	Speakers: Professor Carl Anders Säfström
25 mins	Culturally sustaining pedagogy and cognitively challenging curriculum: Going beyond celebrations of diversity in primary classrooms.	Speakers: Dr Jacqueline D'Warte
25 mins	Culturally responsive pedagogy and Islamic Schooling?	Speakers: Professor Mohamad Abdalla and Dylan Chow
25 mins	Reconciling Aboriginal Student needs and The Australian Curriculum Response: The case for Culturally Responsive Pedagogy	Speakers: Professor Lester-Irabinna Rigney
20 mins	DISCUSSION
1:30 – 2:15pm	Lunch	C1-79 Foyer, Magill Campus
2:15 – 4:15pm	SYMPOSIA 3
25 mins	Developing culturally responsive teacher education: a case study	Speakers: Dr Kathryn Paige and Dr Alison Wrench
25 mins	Quality, equitable schooling and ‘improved outcomes’ for all: What’s that look like in classrooms?	Speakers: Professor Annette Woods
25 mins	Indigenous ‘Posthumanisms’: relational sovereignty, ‘Country’ and decolonial pedagogies	Speakers: Professor Daryle Rigney, Associate Professor Steve Hemming and Dr Simone Bignall
25 mins	Cultural responsiveness and listening: what’s the connection?	Speakers: Dr Stephen Kelly
20 mins	DISCUSSION
4:15pm	Education for Democratic Citizenship Conference - closed	