

LESSON 3.

A written exercise on words selected from the above.

Week 6.

LESSON 1.

A few minutes' oral exercise as in Lesson 1, last week, followed by a written exercise.

LESSON 2.

An exercise on Lesson 2, last week, as directed by the teacher. (Manual, page 79.)

LESSON 3.

A written exercise on Lesson 2, last week.

Week 7.

LESSON 1.

An exercise on the following list of words, as directed by the teacher:—

is	can be	could have	could have been am	could be	will have	will have been
are	may be	would have	would have been
was	might be	may have	may have been were	will be	might have	might have been has	would be	shall have	shall have been have	shall be	should have	should have been had	should be have been has been had been

LESSON 2.

In the following sentences the words in black type are joined to names. Say what added meaning has been given to the name:—

1. Those pretty flowers grew in our front garden.
2. Six ripe peaches were on a glass dish, and a little girl looked with longing eyes at the tempting fruit.

3. Many smooth round pebbles can be found in the beds of most rivers.

4. Few tomatoes grew on those bushes, but many tomatoes grew on these bushes.

5. I saw another boy talking in the fourth row, and several girls whispering in the back row.

6. One bright sunny day the whole family drove down to the sandy beach and had a happy holiday.

7. That young lady is taller than this one.

8. This room was quite tidy before that dreadful storm blew the dust through those open windows.

9. The charming old lady told us many interesting stories of her early life.

10. Woollen clothes are the best for the winter season in most countries.

11. Yonder old gum tree is mentioned in the early history of this State.

12. I read the twentieth chapter of a long but delightful story last evening.

LESSON 3.

As in Lesson 2.

Week 8.

LESSON 1.

As in Lesson 1, last week.

LESSON 2.

As in Lesson 2, last week, but selecting the words from the reading-book. (Manual, page 80.)

LESSON 3.

As in last Lesson.

Week 9.

LESSON 1.

As in Lesson 1, Weeks 1, 2, and 3, First Quarter, Grade V. (see pages 35, 36, and 38), as a written exercise.