

Bachelor of Health Sciences

Associate
Professor Annette
Raynor

Division of Health Sciences

Health: the Inside View.

- Students receive knowledge, skills & attitudes to work in health intervention, maintenance, promotion, management
- 16 core courses + specialisations (majors & minors)
- Provision of workplace experience
- TER (2009 cut off) – 80.00
- Program length – 3 years full-time
- Part-time study is available

Bachelor of Health Science

- Students need a positive approaches to health, advocates of a healthy lifestyle & have an interest in science
- UniSA is the primary provider of allied health professional programs in SA
- Growing demand for non-clinical health professionals
- Graduates work in health promotion, policy development & analysis, research, healthcare management, HR, information management, community development, counselling, finance, education and marketing
- Employers include – government, universities, industry, business & the community ie hospitals, mental health & public health units, health clinics, aged & disability care

- Program provides inter-disciplinary knowledge & skills to operate effectively in the broader health care sector
- Specialisations– administrative management, adult & community education, counselling & interpersonal skills, human resource management, management accounting, management of IT, marketing, psychology, allied health
- Provides a pathway to Graduate Entry Physiotherapy, Graduate Entry OT, Master in Dietetics
- Accepts Special Entry (STAT)
- TAFE credit is available

Contact details

UniSA health graduates have the highest employment rate in SA

Division of Health Sciences Contact Details:

Telephone: +61 8 8302 2253

Email: health.enquiries@unisa.edu.au

website: <http://www.unisa.edu.au/health>