

Invitation to Health and Medical Researchers

We would like to invite you to attend a workshop dedicated to exploring a range of views pertaining to the establishment of the South Australian Health and Medical Research Institute (SAHMRI).

The establishment of the Institute is a key recommendation of the Shine and Young Review of Health and Medical Research in South Australia.

This workshop will explore various topics including:

- > Current health and medical research strengths in SA
- > Emerging niche areas which provide opportunities for future development
- > Requirements to facilitate the growth of health and medical research in SA.
- > Governance and administrative arrangements for the SAHMRI.

Date: 30 April 2009

Place: Ballroom 3, Sebel Playford Adelaide, 120 North Terrace, City

Time: 12.30 pm – 5.00 pm

Lunch will be served at 12.30 pm and the workshop will commence at 1.00 pm sharp.

This invitation is open to all health and medical researchers at your institution who are at post doctoral level and above.

If you are interested in attending, please RSVP to Sarah Lawson, sarah.lawson@health.sa.gov.au by 15 April 2009.

Please note seating is limited and a waiting list will be established if capacity is reached.
