

Resume

- Name: Peter J Stewart
- Current Position: Research Director (Associate Professor) RMIT University
- Qualifications:
- Bachelor of Building (Honours 2A), Uni of Melbourne, 1978
 - Graduate Diploma in Engineering Maintenance Management (Terotechnology), Monash University (Gippsland), 1987
 - Master of Building, University of Newcastle 1995
 - PHD, RMIT University 2000
- Employment History:
- Research Director RMIT (Apr 2004 to date)
 - Head of School and Associate Professor RMIT (Nov 2003 to Apr 2004)
 - Head of Department and Associate Professor RMIT (1999 to Nov 2003)
 - Associate Professor RMIT (Appointed 1995 - ongoing)
 - Senior Lecturer and Program Co-ordinator RMIT (1992-1995)
 - Lecturer - RMIT (1991-1992)
 - Director, EIT Computer Solutions Pty Ltd (1990-1991)
 - Senior Consultant, Fluor Daniel 1987-1990)
 - Senior Building Economist, Ministry of Education (1980-1986)
 - Quantity Surveyor Public Works Department Vic (1976-1980)

Research Summary:

Currently I am supervising the research project work of a number of masters by coursework students, masters by research thesis candidates, and PhD candidates. In all, I have been involved in a supervisory capacity in the successful completion of more than 15 masters' theses (coursework dissertation and research thesis candidates). I have been an external examiner for a number of masters by research and masters by coursework dissertations. I have more than 25 major publications in refereed journals, and refereed conferences.

- Represented Australia at the IEA Annex 31 meetings in Sweden, Switzerland, Netherlands, France and Singapore 1996-1999 with received ERDC funding of $104,000. Please refer to <http://annex31.wiwi.uni-karlsruhe.de> for the report.
- Participated and managed specific aspects of two externally funded research projects with industry and university partners - ACIF Innovation Survey and IT strategy (ACCI)
- Jointly directed the Commonwealth Government funded Business Builder project with a number of industry partners (GHD, Spowers, Energetics, Knight Frank, Multiplex Asset Management and the FMA)
- Initiated and subsequently developed strong academic and research links with Glasgow Caledonian University, University of Florida, Loughborough University and University of Cape Town
- Regional Editor for Facilities Journal, published by Emerald (since 2001)
- Chief editor for the Australian Journal of Construction Economics and Building for Volume 3, Issues 1 and 2 in 2003.
- Member of editorial advisory board for the Journal of Construction Research, World Scientific (since 2002)
- Active member of the Facilities Management Association (FMA)