

Our Education graduates are in a class of their own.

Apply now for midyear entry at UniSA.

For many people, learning does not stop once they leave school. Learning is now a part of almost all jobs and there is a growing demand for educators who are able to design, implement and deliver a range of learning opportunities for adults in the workplace and the wider community.

UniSA offers the only Vocational Education & Training undergraduate and postgraduate programs in South Australia to those who wish to pursue a career as a professional educator or trainer in adult, community, vocational, workplace or work-related education.

In these programs you'll develop the skills and knowledge to make you an even better teacher, mentor and communicator.

UniSA's programs allow you to study full-time or part-time, on campus or externally. No matter how you study, you'll be given strong support all the way. Extensive credit arrangements also exist to reduce the time it takes to complete your degree.

Bachelor of Education (Adult, Vocational & Workplace Learning).

You've got knowledge and experience from your chosen vocation to pass onto students and workplaces, but don't have a teaching degree? This program will provide you with a formal teaching qualification giving you the opportunity of greater job prospects.

Graduate Diploma in Education (Adult, Vocational and Workplace Learning).

For those with an undergraduate degree in any discipline area plus existing vocational knowledge and experience to pass onto like-minded students and workplaces.
