

Internationalise your Expertise.

The Master of International Studies at the University of South Australia is a dynamic and interdisciplinary program. It develops students' ability to undertake informed and critical analysis of theory and specialist practice in international relations, world politics and comparative cross-cultural studies with a broader focus on foreign/public policy, security, governance, development, gender, empowerment and culture.

The program has multicultural, highly qualified academic staff with diverse career backgrounds and research interests. Many fellow students are acquiring expertise to enhance their established careers in industry, local and international non-government and government agencies.
