

‘WHAT EXAMINERS ARE LOOKING FOR’ PANEL PRESENTATION

Date: Friday 2 October 2009    Time: 1.30 – 4.30 pm
Venue: Bradley Forum, Hawke Building, City West

- Are you preparing to submit your thesis?
- Would you like to know more about the examination process?

This interactive workshop provides information on the thesis submission process and a panel of experienced thesis examiners will discuss the examination process.

Presenters

Examination process	Professor Nanthi Bolan	Dean of Graduate Studies Active Researcher in Centre for Environmental Risk Assessment and Remediation (CERAR)
Thesis Submission process	Ms Michelle Sced	Manager: Research Education and Training
RESA Online	Ms Andrea Rankin	Web Editor: Research & Innovation Services
Panel	Professor Caroline McMillen	Deputy Vice Chancellor and Vice President: Research & Innovation, Director of the Research Laboratory for the Early Origins of Adult Health (HSC)
	Professor Jerzy Filar	Foundation Professor of Mathematics & Statistics (ITEE)
	Professor Rick Sarre	Professor of Law & Criminal Justice (BUE)
	Professor Claire Woods	Professor of Communication & Writing (EASS)
	Dr Vicki Crowley	Gender & Cultural Studies; Supervisor of 2007 Ian Davey Thesis Prize Winner (EASS)

If you have any queries please contact Dr Cassandra Loeser cassandra.loeser@unisa.edu.au

Academic Developer-Research Education, Learning and Teaching Unit, Magill campus

Podcasts and Powerpoint presentations from the 2007 version of this workshop are available on the Resources from on campus programs webpage: www.unisa.edu.au/researchsupport/oncampus/super-resources.asp#examiners