

Website development flowchart (for sites not hosted on the corporate server)

The creation of a new website is the responsibility of each local area, in consultation with both the MDU and ISTS. This flow chart has been developed to assist in the creation of new sites not hosted on the corporate server and should be used in conjunction with the Web Development Guide.

