JN203	Television Journalism
--------------	------------------------------

Prerequisites: JN101 and JN103

Semester 1: Not offered

Semester 2: F at L

The course distinguishes the process involved in writing for television as distinct from other media. It puts stress on teaching visual language skills. Workshops will include video scripting, camera techniques, sound and lighting, location issues, editing with Final Cut Pro, and producing TV news, news features, and documentaries. The focus of the course is journalistic as well as technical. Lecture topics will include the history and development of television/cinema in the Pacific and internationally.

Explanation

This course has a course code of JN203, the JN prefix meaning it is a Journalism course, and the first digit of the three-number suffix indicating it is a 200-level (a second-year course). In Semester 1, it is Not Offered. In Semester 2, it is offered Face-to-Face (F) at the Laucala Campus (L).

The prerequisite for the course is JN101 and JN103. This means a student must have already passed the course JN101 and JN103 before being permitted to register for JN203. The material in JN101 and JN103 is an essential foundation for understanding JN203.

International students with an interest in studying in Fiji are required to apply for a student permit prior to entry. In an effort to streamline the student permit application process, the Ministry of Immigration [The government body responsible for enforcing immigration laws and regulations. This includes processing visa applications, issuing permits, and managing border control] has implemented changes that now require students to directly lodge their applications with the Immigration Department.

A service fee of $200.00 FJD, payable to USP, will be applicable should students wish to engage our office for a pre-lodgment review and vetting of their applications.

Student permit is lodged through Ministry of Immigration portal, link provided: ImmiHub | Fiji Immigration Department

Contact USP International Office for student permit checklist and enquiries on the following email: litiana.taniela@usp.ac.fj & copy international@usp.ac.fj

Students attending other regional campuses

International students attending USP campuses outside of Fiji are kindly reminded that they will need to adhere to the visa, immigration, and any applicable COVID-19 travel protocols specific to their chosen study destination. Students are required to independently manage their visa applications. The USP International Office is committed to facilitating connections with campus staff in those locations to provide further support.

ARRIVAL ASSISTANCE

For students attending one of Fiji campuses

We advise all inbound international exchange/study abroad students to arrive at the Suva/Nausori Airport the weekend before Orientation or during the USP IO working hours (Monday – Friday between 8am to 5pm, where possible) and we will be able to arrange transportation from the airport to USP. For students who board the Coral Sun bus from Nadi Airport, our staff will be at the Holiday Inn to meet them. Students can call the USP International staff for assistance if they prefer to find their own way to USP from Nadi Airport.

Under no circumstances students are to travel in a taxi from Nadi Airport to Suva alone or board minibuses. Taxis can be expensive for ‘foreigners’ and minibuses are not a safe mode of transportation. If students are disembarking at Nadi Airport and wish to find their own way to Suva, ask airport personnel for assistance or refer to Local Transportation above for bus schedules. One-way bus fare from Nadi Airport to Suva City is approximately FJD$35.

Students attending campuses, other than Fiji

You may have to make your own arrangement for transportation. The USP International will assist with establishing contact with the campus staff for further assistance.
