

Transforming the PhD Workshop

Methods and case studies in valuing environmental, cultural and social resources

February 18 2020

H6-03, Level 6, Hawke Building

UniSA City West Campus, North Terrace, Adelaide, Australia

Register

8:30 – 9:00am	Registration and Coffee	Foyer
9:00 – 10.30am	Welcome and Introduction <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - How an economist thinks - Introduction to cost-benefit analysis - Types of benefits 	Prof Lin Crase, UniSA
10:30 – 10:45am	Morning tea/health break	Foyer
10:45 – 12:15pm	Introduction to accounting for social and environmental resources	Prof Robert Costanza
12.15 – 1.15pm	Lunch – available for purchase	Honki Tonki Restaurant
1:15 – 2:00pm	Case study: Availability of water and its relationship to values: Insights using non-market valuation	Prof Lin Crase, UniSA
2:00 – 2.45pm	Case study: Benefit Transfer	Prof Jeff Connor
2:45 – 3:00pm	Afternoon tea/health break	Foyer
3.00 – 3:45pm	Case study: Estimating benefits and costs: A case of fish passages in Laos	Dr Bethany Cooper
3:45 – 4:30pm	Case Study	Dr Courtney Regan
4:30pm	Close – Networking	Foyer