

2018 Seeding Grant Application

Welcome to Rosemary Bryant AO Research Centre Seeding Grant application form

Application Instructions

The aim of the Rosemary Bryant AO Research Centre Seeding Grant is to support South Australian researchers undertaking research of an excellent quality and that is aligned with the strategic plan of the Rosemary Bryant AO Research Centre. The successful applicants will have leadership prospects and will strengthen their research in South Australia and promote collaboration and the transfer of knowledge to achieve improved evidence-based healthcare outcomes.

If you have not already done so, you are strongly encouraged to read the Seeding Grant Application Guidelines prior to completing this form (available here).

Please use non-technical, clear language throughout the application.

As part of this application process you will be required to upload:

1. A Project Budget
2. A copy of the Lead Chief Investigator's CV (maximum 4 pages)
3. A letter of support from Project end-users or industry

These documents must be in PDF, DOC or DOCX format only. Please have these documents ready prior to progress.

Please complete all required questions on each page. You will be prompted and not permitted to continue if you do not complete a required question.

The application form has page breaks. This is designed to save your progress as you complete each page and should allow you to return to your application if required. However, we strongly recommend you complete the application in one sitting.

You will be provided with a copy of your completed application at the end.

Applications are due Monday 20 November, 2017, 9:00am ACDT.
