It is possible that there will be exams on the last day of the semester. We strongly recommend that students book their return flights with the semester dates in mind. EBS will not modify the exam schedule due to early departure flights.

Please note that after more than ten years in Wiesbaden, the EBS Law School will now move to our campus in Oestrich Winkel in summer 2024 as part of the "OneCampus" project. Lectures will be held exclusively in Oestrich Winkel starting as of Law Term 2024.

6. Visa and Immigration

All exchange students are required to investigate in advance whether they need a visa to study in Germany or not. The following website is useful to get to know everything about the visa process: <https://www.auswaertiges-amt.de/en/visa-service>

Students should contact the nearest German embassy or consulate in their home country in this matter. Also, the International Programmes Team at EBS can offer general advice. Further information about EBS Law School: <https://www.ebs.edu/en/education/ebs-law-school>

If a visa is required, the student should calculate at least 8-12 weeks' time to apply for it.

EBS has no possibility to speed up the visa process if a student applies for the visa too late. Students are supposed to be on campus in time for the obligatory orientation day. If they do not receive their visa in time, they will not be able to attend EBS.

If a Non-EU student enters with a 90 days-visa or enters with a passport which allows him/her to stay for 90 days, the student needs to apply for a German residence permit after arrival. EBS International Office will give a mandatory info-session to these students at the beginning of the semester. Students should apply for the residence permit at least 10 weeks before expiry of their visa/90 days if possible.

Non-EU students should be aware that in order to apply for a visa/residence permit successfully, they need to show proof of 934 EUR for every month of their stay in the Schengen Area.

7. Housing

We do not offer on-campus housing. Finding housing in Oestrich and surrounding areas (Wiesbaden, Mainz etc.) is difficult and expensive. We strongly encourage students to begin looking for accommodation before their arrival in Germany and to take our recommendations into consideration. Housing offers from local landlords as well as EBS students who want to sublet flat mates can be found on our Housing website (<https://www.myebs.de/housing.387/listing/>). Login data will be sent to students by the IT department after completing the enrolment process at EBS University.

Approximate Living Costs (in local currency):

Total:	approx. € 934 - € 1300 per month
Accommodation:	€ 400 - € 600 per month
Food:	€ 250 per month
Books and classroom materials:	€ 50 - € 100
Transportation:	semester ticket for public transport in the area; € 150,88 per semester; mandatory for every student of EBS
Excursions (not mandatory):	approx. € 80
Health Insurance (Non-EU):	approx. € 110 per month

Germans love to pay in cash! Please bring enough money. You must pay the semester ticket in cash for example.

8. Health Insurance

By law, all students must have sufficient health cover to be able to study in Germany and/or to apply for a student visa/residence permit.

For the digital insurance notification, the statutory health insurance company requires the sender number of EBS Universität für Wirtschaft und Recht. This is:

H0002980

EU-students Students who have health insurance in a European country are generally exempted from compulsory insurance. These students must also register with a German statutory health insurance fund, which in turn reports a digital insurance notification to EBS that they are not subject to compulsory insurance. Proof in paper or card form is not sufficient.

European Health Insurance Card

An accidents and travel insurance has to be contracted to complement the EHIC. Please note that the EHIC does not cover neither accidents nor any private healthcare or costs such as a return flight to your home country or lost/stolen property. Moreover, the EHIC does not cover your costs if you are traveling for the express purpose of obtaining medical treatment.

Non-EU-students should be careful in selecting a health insurance plan as it has to satisfy the very strict requirements of the university and the immigration office (for visa/residence permit application).

We strongly recommend purchasing full German student health coverage for the semester at EBS. All public German insurance providers offer the same, comprehensive services for the same price (ca. 130 EUR per month).

Barmer insurance and TK insurance offer a convenient service via email in English:

- ✓ TK: Use the following link to apply German health insurance for foreign students or contact Mr. Pierre Abbo: pierre.abbo@tk.de or +49 (0) 0800 285 85 85
- ✓ Barmer: contact: service@barmer.de or +49 (0) 800 333 1010
- ✓ further public insurance providers in our area are AOK (www.aok.de) or DAK (www.dak.de)

A travel insurance and liability insurance has to be contracted to complement the public German insurance! (civil liability and death and repatriation is not covered with the public health insurance)

If you do not want to get full German health coverage, please take note of the following matters:

- ✓ Other plans may be cheaper but they provide less comprehensive coverage and mostly you have to pay all treatments in advance before being able to reclaim some of the costs!
- ✓ After arrival you need to get your insurance plan validated with a public insurance provider: they have to confirm that your coverage equals their comprehensive plans! And rarely any private insurance plans are sufficient.
- ✓ The immigration office that decides over your visa and residence application is extremely strict which plans they accept. Most international plans are not sufficient for them. If a student hands in a plan not accepted by the immigration office, it will be rejected and the visa application will be halted. This may cause several weeks delay in the visa process and result in a student not being able to arrive in time for semester start. Also, the immigration offices only accept insurance documents issued in either German or English!

If you decide to reject full student health coverage plans, please find an option for a private insurance plan that is sufficient to study in Germany. A good option might be the following:

<https://www.expatrio.com/xp/#/health-insurance/exploration/profession>

Students from non-EU countries must also register with a statutory health insurance fund because they also need a digital insurance notification from the statutory health insurance fund for enrolment. The statutory health insurance company digitally reports to EBS whether the student is insured or exempt from compulsory insurance. International students who are currently still abroad and cannot take out a valid health insurance policy until they arrive in Germany can make up the insurance notification after their arrival in Germany.
