

SOCIAL WORK HONOURS

2016 research projects

Briton-Jones, C 2016, Shifting Cultural Identities: South Sudanese youth perspectives.
Supervisor: Shepard Masocha.

Bruerville, C 2016, Aboriginal (and non-Aboriginal) child and family welfare practitioners' negotiation of personal and professional boundaries when providing support and services to Aboriginal children and families in rural settings.
Supervisor: Deirdre Tedmanson.

D'Agostino, C 2016, 'Always Watching': The representation of responsibilities in the National Child Protection Policy.
Supervisor: Carole Zufferey.

Hall, T 2016, Service Provider's experiences and perceptions of the National Disability Insurance Scheme.
Supervisor: Harry Savelsberg.

Honner, S 2016, Inclusion or Assimilation? An analysis of the national aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Education Strategy 2015: How the 'problem' of Indigenous education is positioned and implications for social work.
Supervisor: Deirdre Tedmanson.

Kellis, G 2016, Cyber Bullying: An exploratory analysis of the meanings and understandings that young people give to their behaviour.
Supervisor: Helena de Anstiss.

Latsis, K 2016, Awkward, Social, Creative? A phenomenological re-imagining of young adults living with an Autism Spectrum Condition.
Supervisor: Harry Savelsberg.

Obst, T 2016, Together for the long haul: Women with multiple sclerosis and their relationships with health professionals.
Supervisor: Nicole Moulding.

Smith, K 2016, "You are killing me!" A study linking impacts of political and social acts of racism with social and emotional wellbeing problems of Indigenous Australians.
Supervisor: Deirdre Tedmanson.

Wright, L 2016, It's just a game: Exploring the discursive practices used by parents in mediating access to violent video gaming with young males: an Australian perspective.
Supervisor: Nicole Moulding.