

Replanting the Birthing Trees Webinar

Monday 16th December 2024
1 pm - 2 pm (AEST)

Join us in celebrating the launch of our Resource Hub

In Dec 2024, the Replanting the Birthing Trees project is launching an online Resource Hub to support Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander families, communities, and those who provide care and services.

Register for the webinar here

SPEAKERS INCLUDE

The Replanting the Birthing Trees Resource workstream on the co-design process and key features of the Resource Hub.

Renna Gayde and Dr Jacynta Krakour on a resource for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander parents when child protection is involved and or is at risk of involvement during pregnancy and shortly after birth.

Dr Mishel McMahon on a resource that highlights traditional child-rearing practices where children develop through relationships with their family, Community, and Country, fostering cultural identity and holistic wellbeing.