

Elma Ruth Harder is Program Specialist for Sakinah Circle, an alternative KG – Grade 6 program in Edmonton Public Schools, Alberta, Canada that delivers public school curriculum through the lens of the Qur’anic worldview. Her work focuses on the pedagogy of teaching and learning with the Qur’anic worldview, integrated thematic learning, and the development of resources to meet curriculum learning outcomes through the Qur’anic worldview.

An experienced educator, curriculum writer and author, Elma’s academic background includes a Master’s degree in Continuing and Vocational Education (University of Wisconsin-Madison, 1986), Bachelor of Science in Home Economics (1984), Bachelor of Education (1980), both from the University of Saskatchewan, and Bachelor of Theology (Canadian Mennonite University, 1977). She has taught at schools in rural Saskatchewan and Alberta, the International School in Islamabad, Pakistan and homeschooled her children.

Elma is the author of Concentric Circles, Nurturing Awe and Wonder in Early Learning, a foundational approach (2006). Her other publications include Lives of the Prophets (1999) and Living Ramadan, for children who think (2004).

Elma lives in aspen parkland on Treaty 6 territory near Edmonton, Alberta.